

ASX Release

24 January 2019

expense8 expands travel module coverage within Federal Government

- Department of the Senate, Department of Finance and Federal Courts of Australia go live with the Expense8 Travel Module;
- Expense8 Travel integrates with QBT (Whole of Australian Government Travel Management Company provider) and Amadeus' Online Booking Tool (OBT);
- Expense8 Travel has been used for more than 25,000 trips.

Expense8, a division of 8common Limited (ASX: 8CO) strengthens its position as a leading Travel and Expense Management platform as it expands its client base.

The Department of the Senate, Department of Finance and Federal Courts of Australia have all gone live with the Expense8 Travel Module as the product continues to gain traction within the Australian Federal Government. Other notable agencies using the expense8 Travel module include the Department of the Prime Minister and Cabinet, the Treasury and the Australian Communication and Media Authority.

The expense8 Corporate Travel module offers a unique Pre-Trip approval function that let's employees easily plan and book corporate travel. The function also includes an easy and secure approval process for both managers and employees.

In addition to the Federal Government agencies, New South Wales Department of Industry were the first to implement expense8 Travel in September 2018.

Executive Chairman of 8common Nic Lim said, "We expect the pace of adoption for our Travel platform to continue to accelerate across both Federal and State Government clients. We are delivering the industry standard platform for large enterprises, which require high touch, are sophisticated and regulated."
